

Wendy G. Macy
Personnel Director
Personnel Commission

Experience

Wendy is responsible for heading the Personnel Commission staff. The Personnel Commission is an autonomous merit-based agency that provides Human Resources services relating to the 40,000 classified employees of the District. She has 15 years human resources, legal and risk management experience. She began her career in private practice at large law firms. Since 2001, she has been at the Los Angeles Unified School District. She previously supported the Office of the Chief Operating Officer in numerous business and operations functions, including creation of a risk management department. Wendy has been engaged in multiple district-wide turnaround projects, including an absence management task force, development of data on employee costs, development of data on unfunded liabilities, workers' comp improvements, wellness, leave compliance and management.

Education/
Professional
Affiliations

Wendy holds a bachelors degree in History and Psychology, magna cum laude, from Harvard University. She holds a juris doctorate, cum laude, from Harvard Law School. Wendy is admitted in to practice in federal and state courts in California and Pennsylvania. She currently serves on the Board of the Los Angeles Chapter of the Risk and Insurance Management Society as Director of External Affairs and on the Board of the California Health Care Coalition. She is a member of numerous other legal and human resources organizations, including the Society for Human Resources Management, the International Public Management Association for Human Resources, the California School Personnel Commission Association, the Personnel Testing Council, the Los Angeles County Bar Association, Integrated Benefits Institute, and the American Corporate Counsel Association.