

	Adam M. Boujida Director, Enterprise Risk & Underwriting Knight Insurance Group
Experience	Adam joined Knight Insurance Group as Director of Enterprise Risk & Underwriting in October 2016. In his role, he leads the design, development, and implementation of Knight's enterprise risk management (ERM) framework as well as management and risk assessment of new and existing underwriting programs. Adam began his career in the industry in 2006 while earning his Bachelor's Degree in Risk Management & Insurance from St. John's University in New York. Starting in 2009, Adam spent his first two years in the brokerage capacity with Marsh & McLennan Companies and Arthur J. Gallagher & Company, followed by serving five years in corporate risk management / insurance purchasing for three global Fortune 500 companies within the Aviation, Manufacturing, and Media Entertainment industries. In 2011, Adam joined JetBlue Airways Corporation as a Risk Management Analyst through the end of 2012 when he relocated to Los Angeles after the events of Superstorm Sandy. From mid-2013, Adam served two years at Mattel, Inc. as a Senior Risk Management Analyst before moving onto Activision Blizzard in May 2015 to establish the organization's first ever dedicated corporate risk & insurance function.
Education	Adam completed his undergraduate studies in 2010 from the AACSB accredited St. John's University School of Risk Management, Insurance and Actuarial Science (formerly known as The College of Insurance) receiving his Bachelor of Science Degree in Risk Management & Insurance.